

DJ Trends

- Livestreaming and online performances
- Social media following
- Digital service providers (e.g. Spotify, Apple Music, etc)
- Pushing music culture forward
- DJing virtual event spaces
- Silent discos

I didn't come up as a DJ,
so I don't play by DJ rules.

Deadmau5

DJing Virtually

In this article 'Digital DJ Tips' explains how to host a DJ Zoom party, with 7 tips to have awesome live streams.

This website offers professional virtual event DJs to help you host an exciting online event with high-quality surround sound and customised music playlists.

DJing virtually (usually via Zoom) is an up-and-coming industry that is sure to be very popular in years to come.

Silent Discos

Where people dance to music coming through their wireless headphones instead of a speaker system.

This fun and unique form of DJing can be tailored to specific needs and preferences while keeping noise pollution to a minimum.

